

2021 UUFW Service Auction Help Wanted List

Following are some tasks that our member and friends need help with and the amount they will donate to UUFW if anyone signs up to do these jobs. If you are willing to undertake one of these tasks, email auction@uufw.org and let us know which wish you will fulfill. Kay Yost, of the Auction Task Force, will notify the person requesting the work when someone agrees to undertake one of these tasks.

Wayne Nolde is looking for someone to do heavy yardwork such as cutting down multiflora rose bushes, feeding brush into a chipper, trimming lower limbs off cedar trees with a chainsaw, moving rocks, digging holes, mixing concrete, etc. at his house near Mount Sidney. He would like the work to be done this fall, but if there are no takers for this fall Wayne will still have items to be done in the spring since everything he needs to do or have done will take days and days. Wayne will donate $100 for 4 hours work ($25/hour).

Marilyn Nash is looking for help with managing digital photos. She would like someone to help with photo management including development of a plan for (1) taking photos from the camera to computer, phone, scanner. (2) Storage and organization of photos, (3) intro to editing. Sony and Apple products. Marilyn will donate $100 for 4 hours of photo management assistance.

Anne Cooper-Chen is looking for someone to do some power washing at her home in Staunton. This will include power washing the short walkway leading to her front door, about 20 feet long by 3 feet wide, as well as the landing at her door. She does not own a power washer. Will pay rental fee if needed. Anne will donate $150 for this task.
